

James Frank Berry

November 13, 1947 - December 30, 2017

Jackson, SC—Memorial Services for Mr. James Frank Berry, 70, who entered into rest December 30, 2017 after a long battle with Lewy Body Dementia and Parkinson's Disease, will be conducted Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Posey Funeral Chapel with Veterans Honors. Pastor Brandon L. Fulmer officiating. A private family interment will be held in Beaufort National Cemetery.

Mr. Berry was a native of Missouri and Iowa, having made Jackson his home for the past 17 years. He attended Bethel United Methodist Church. Mr. Berry served in the US Navy during the Vietnam War and was a member of the Phillip Taylor Memorial American Legion Post #97 in Jackson, SC. He retired as a Boiler Maker with Local 83 and enjoyed making stained glass, riding his Harley Davidson and most of all visiting St. Augustine Florida and Disney World. Mr. Berry was preceded in death by his parents Joe and Eleanor Berry; a brother, Bob Berry; his father-in-law, James Goodman, Sr.

Survivors include his wife of 20 years, Mary Beth Berry; a child, Zane (Jillian) Berry, Ankeny, IA; a nephew, David (Amy) Berry; his mother-in-law, Emily Goodman; two brothers-in-law, Jim Goodman, Chris (Terri) Goodman.

Honorary Pallbearers will be members of the Phillip Taylor Memorial American Legion Post #97.

The family will receive friends at the funeral home Friday afternoon from 1:30 until the hour of service.

Friends may call on the family at the residence of Mrs. Emily Goodman, Granville Plantation, 16596 Atomic Road, Jackson, SC 29831.

The Berry family would like to extend a heart-felt thank you to Agape Hospice and Pepper Hill Rehab and Nursing Center for their compassionate care.

“ We lifted you all in prayers tonight and sending our love to the Berry Family. Kenneth enjoyed his talks with Jim about the "Iowa Days." We all love Jim and sure have missed him in church over all these months. We will see him again when we are all home in Heaven - to never be separated again. God bless you Marybeth and family while we celebrate his life this week - and - all that he meant to so many that love him and will miss him. We will see you Friday at the service.
